Inspiring Creativity

To inspire a lifetime of learning over multiple generations, educational facilities must be able to change with the times. From modern pops of color to tactile-enhanced materials, surfaces in primary education facilities can help foster a lifelong love of learning, creativity and school spirit. By combining the right combination of surfaces like Wilsonart® Quartz, Solid Surface and Laminate, students, staff and faculty can enjoy an aesthetically intriguing and elevated learning experience.

Embracing Wellbeing

Incorporating nature's neutrals and biophilic design elements are hot topics in education architecture. That's because earthy color options not only support wellbeing and creativity, but they also help to reduce stress and anxiety. And as more schools opt to be less trendy and more timeless with their color selections, the greater the benefits neutral selections offer.
